Township Chiefs Meeting

Chief Nordaby talked about gear swapping, fire, fire prevention, and equipment lists are due by the end of September. In addition, Chief Nordaby also discussed the count for radios, apparatus and hose replacement. He also mentioned a training grant that Green-fields has obtained and generously opened the invitation to all companies to participate.

Gloucester County Chief's meeting

NONE

Township Liaison:

NONE

Mayor's Alternate

Mr. Campo updated on the insurance audit, as a follow up from June 10, 2013. The audits fared well for the Township overall. The only recommendation was the subject of volunteer response to providing insurance cards, to which Mr. Campo suggested possible future discussions.

Public Safety (Mayor)

NONE

OEM

Mr. Gill discussed recent FEMA interactions and finalizing the required paperwork for 1st Avenue.

Citizens at Large

CAL Nahas asked of the status of 3rd party billing to which Chief Matson responded he did not feel it warranted the work behind it after doing some research. The group talked about the differences between the County response and the Township response. CAL Nahas also followed up on the earlier conversation regarding the status of the delinquent repair of fire-trucks.

Old Business

NONE

New Business

Chief Nordaby also thanked all involved for assisting at the recovery in the Delaware River and the Dietz & Watson fire in Delanco. Chief Zimm talked about the local building code not being able to supersede the state code in regards to placing air-conditioning units on rooftops of commercial businesses.
